How do you vote?

Voting is by postal correspondence, as set out in Law no. 459 of December 27, 2001, and in the Presidential Decree no. 104 of 2 April 2003. In particular:

- Consular offices will send each voter, via postal correspondence, an electoral package containing:
 - the electoral card (i.e. the document certifying the right to vote);
 - the lists of candidates pertaining to its constituency (Chamber of Deputies and Senate of the Republic);
 - the ballot papers (one for the Chamber of Deputies and one for the Senate of the Republic);
 - a small all-white envelope;
 - a larger envelope, postage-paid, bearing the address of the relevant Consular Office;
 - this information sheet.
- All voters who are 18 years of age or older as of September 25, 2022 will receive the ballots and lists for the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate of the Republic;
- Each voter casts his/her vote by putting a mark (e.g. an "X" or a check mark) on the symbol corresponding to the list of his or her choice, or on the rectangle of the ballot paper surrounding it, and must do so using ONLY a black or blue ballpoint pen;
- Each voter may cast a vote of preference by writing the candidate's last name on the line next to the checked symbol. The law envisages that the number of preferences varies according to the constituency (maximum two preferences in the constituencies to which two or more members of the Chamber of Deputies or of the Senate of the Republic are assigned, and maximum one preference in the others). Each voter may express as many preferences as there are lines placed next to each symbol;
- The ballot papers must be placed in the small all-white envelope which must be carefully sealed and must contain only the ballot papers;
- each voter will insert the electoral slip (after detaching it from the electoral certificate along the dotted line) and the small sealed envelope with the duly compiled ballot papers in the postage-paid larger envelope (bearing the address of the competent diplomatic/consular office);
- This sealed postage-paid envelope must be mailed in time to ensure that it reaches the Consular Office no later than: 4:00 p.m. (local time) THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2022;
- Ballot papers received after the aforementioned deadline cannot be counted, and will be incinerated.
