Notes:

- All Italian issued vital records must be in original.
- All foreign (non-Italian) issued vital records must be in long form, in original, with Apostille, and exact Italian translation.
- Naturalization records issued by USCIS require apostille and translation.
- Italian translations must mirror the format of the original document (i.e.: if original is in table format, the same table must be reproduced on the translation), and must include all headers, footers and side notes.
- Italian translations of U.S.-issued vital records will be legalized by this Consular Officer when you submit your application.
- Translations of foreign-issued vital records must be legalized in the country where they were issued, by and/or in accordance with the requirements of the local Italian Embassy/Consulate.
- Make sure the vital records have consistent names and dates. Any discrepancies (spelling, aliases, clerical errors, wrong dates etc) must be rectified before submitting the application.
- Italian Law acknowledges as valid a person's name as written in his/her birth certificate only. Any name changes must be supported by a court decree or they will not be acknowledged.
- Attachments must be prepared in the order indicated below

Attachments:

- FORM 2, applicant (filled out in every part, to be signed by the applicant on the day of the interview)
- FORM 3, living Italian ascendant (filled out in every part, signed by the living ascendant, notarized)
- FORM 4, deceased Italian ascendant (filled out in every part, to be signed by the applicant on the day of the interview)
- PASSPORT COPY
- DRIVER'S LICENSE COPY WITH CURRENT RESIDENTIAL ADDRESS (serving as proof of residence; in alternative, please submit the copy of a current utility bill in your name)
- Italian ancestor generation "0" supporting documents
- Documents of all other Italian ancestor generations 1, 2, 3 etc (as applicable), in chronological order, for each ancestor
- Documents of the Applicant (birth, marriage(s), divorce(s) as applicable, minor children's birth certificates if applicable)
